THANK YOU!

Thank you for enjoying this series over the past three years! I was finally able to bring the Calling series to a close.

It started with Shiki and Keigo's painful love story but at some point it swelled into a rough story that touched on all of Japan.

There were some terrible parts, but I really enjoyed drawing it.

The two of them will continue living a peaceful life far from the world of terrorism, I bet.
Thank you!
I'm glad I was able to draw a glimpse into Keigo and Shiki's life after that.

And a huge thanks to Eda Yuun-sensei, who recommended I be advertised in her manga!
Truly, thank you for your warm support of them until the very end.
About TJ and Shino finding happiness in this world...
And I'm sure that poor Noaki will find himself a good boyfriend at some point.
Take Care!
Let's meet again before too long! ♡
SPECIAL THANKS
Eda Yuun-sensei

Calling series, final volume

Thank you for reading over such a long time! I'm deeply moved to have been able to complete it with out any problems. The final result for TJ and Shino's love, Habu's end, Nishikiori's decision... go ahead and read it all for yourself.
